GUEST CONDUCTORS

Fall Concert: Roger Turner

Roger Turner fell in love with music playing in band at Burley Jr. High. He played trombone under the direction of several influential teachers including Mike Chesley, Skip Leone, Richard Youree and David Jenkins. He studied music on scholarship at Ricks College and later at BYU. He met his wife LeeAnn, at Ricks where they both played in the symphony orchestra. At BYU he played in the Philharmonic, Synthesis, Wind Ensemble and Cougar Band. While there he was influenced by several directors and teachers: Newell Dayley, Ralph Laycock, David Blackinton, Dan Bachelder and Carson Sharp. He also played in several pit orchestras for operas, musicals, brass quintets, jazz combos and other small groups. He also studied at Arizona State University under Gail Eugene Wilson. He received his Master's in Educational Administration from the University of Idaho. Roger began his teaching career at Teton High School in Driggs, Idaho, then Minico High School and currently teaches at Declo. He has spent 36 years teaching bands, orchestras, choirs and elementary music. He has taught from kindergarten through college level. Roger has been a member of the Magic Philharmonic Orchestra for over thirty years playing F horn and trombone. He has served as section leader, assistant conductor and guest conductor with the orchestra. He has also conducted several musicals including You're A Good Man Charlie Brown, Camelot, Man of La Mancha, Kiss Me Kate and Tarzan.

Christmas Concert: Jayna Johnson

Jayna teaches Orchestra! She is currently the Orchestra director at East Minico Middle School and teaches 5th grade strings at all of the Minidoka District elementary schools. She has played string instruments since the age of 7, and graduated from Northwest Nazarene University in Nampa, Idaho with degrees in Music Education and Vocal Performance. She taught in the Treasure Valley before she and her husband moved to the Magic Valley to be the worship pastors at Grace Community Church in Rupert. Jayna lives with her husband, Matthew and her two children, Victory and Valor in Rupert.

Spring Concert: Tim Wood

Tim Wood was born and raised in the Northwest and has lived and worked in Washington and Idaho most of his life. He completed his undergraduate work, (Bachelor of Music, Music Composition), at Central Washington University and his graduate degree, (Master of Music Education), at the University of Idaho. His family has been a farming family in central Washington for over 75 years- several of his cousins still operate fruit orchards. When he's not teaching, he enjoys skiing, reading or enjoying some time with his wife Connie. They've been married 28 years and their son finished his engineering degree at the University of Idaho last spring. Some of his directing experiences include community orchestras and pit orchestras for musicals. He's done everything from guitar slinging with worship groups to fronting Jazz Bands and playing principal clarinet with an orchestra. He's presently deciding whether to form a Jazz Combo again. He's taught high school classes in AP music theory, bands of all kinds, choirs, mariachi, guitar, and more. He presently teaches a section of dual credit music appreciation at Burley High School where he is chairman of the fine arts department and teaches bands and guitar. He's taught college classes in jazz performance, and private saxophone instruction.
